

Main Clause – Connecting Words

Link Word	Example
and	I ran to the beach and I swam in the waves.
or	I'll either have the tomatoes or I'll have the apples.
but	Kevin likes apples but I prefer oranges.
hence	I need to leave today, hence I won't help you.
therefore	This car is faster, therefore it is more expensive.
yet	He doesn't have a license, yet he insists on driving.

Subordinate Clause – Connecting Words

Link Word	Example
after	I'll go the pictures after I clean my room.
although	Although I have yet to win I am confident that I can.
as	As your brother is the eldest he will be in charge tonight.
as long as	As long as you know the risks outweigh the benefits.
because	I ate the apple because it was in the bowl.

Subordinate Clause – Connecting Words cont...

Link Word	Example
before	Before he arrived , he made certain he looked his best.
except for	I liked the new movie except for the car chase .
if	I'll go to the shops if I have enough money .
since	I haven't seen the ocean since I arrived .
that	A boat, that was full of holes , limped into port.
than	I'd rather go hungry than ask for food .
though	I went shopping for new jeans though I probably don't need to .
unless	I can't go unless I clean my room .
until	I can't buy the bike until the bike shop opens .
when	I knew her when she was little .
where	We live in the country where the air is clean and pure .
while	He cleaned the boat while singing the song .
which	I bought new paint brushes which I needed to paint .
who	The boy who is eating the apple is tall.