This graphic organizer is useful in exploring the varied meanings of a word and/or the student’s emotional response to a particular word.

Use the target word in its original context i.e. in a sentence from a book. Only fill in the bubbles where applicable.

Created by David Newman speech-language pathologist