

Simple Sentence - Questions

When we ask a question we change the order of the words in a sentence, and add a question mark.

The boys are swimming.
Are the boys swimming?

Often we need to change the verb and add words to the sentence for it to make sense as a question.

The horse ran to the gate.
Did the horse run to the gate?

We often use words such as who, what, where and when to create questions.

The boys are swimming.
Who are those boys swimming?

The boys are swimming.
What are the boys swimming for?

The boys are swimming.
Where are the boys swimming to?

The boys are swimming.
When will the boys go swimming?

Simple Sentence - Questions